

Glork is Gone

DIRECTIONS: Read the story. Then put the events in order from 1 to 5.

Glork the alien was learning to drive a spaceship. But he wasn't supposed to be! Glork was only 105, and you were supposed to be 300 years old to get a ship's license, but Glork couldn't wait. He just KNEW he would be an amazing driver. On a day when both of his parents were away, Glork took the keys to his father's ship and went out to the space dock. He had seen his father start it hundreds of times before, so once he was tucked inside its glass bubble, he knew just which buttons to push and in what order. It had always looked really easy, so Glork was unprepared when the ship jolted suddenly backwards, rocked out of its port, and careened off around the building where he lived. Soon he heard a siren and the police were right behind him. So Glork did the only thing he could think to do: he smashed down on the big red GO GO GO button and zipped out of the city.
