

Supporting Details

DIRECTIONS: Look at the picture. Read the sentences beside it. One of the sentences expresses the paragraph's main idea. The other is a supporting detail. Circle the sentence that is a supporting detail.

John caught a shark while fishing.

John was fishing from the end of a pier.

Nathan likes the feel of the wire frames.

Nathan is very happy with his new glasses.

George had a crow-themed birthday party.

He hung crow dangles from the ceiling.