Name _____

Nikola Tesla: The Man Who Electrified the World

Short Answer Key

1. Tesla left school because he wanted to start inventing right away.
2. His AC system made it possible to send electricity over long distances, which is still used today.
3. Tesla worked on wireless power, radio waves, and remote-controlled machines.
4. Tesla struggled with money, lost credit for some of his inventions, and faced competition from other inventors.
5. He changed the world with his discoveries in electricity, radio, and wireless technology.

© ReadingDuck.com