

Name _____ Italics

Italics

Titles of major works in a text require a specific formatting. In a typed text, titles of major works should be italicized.

Major Works – Should be italicized	books, movies, long poems, plays, magazines, newspapers, television shows, albums, paintings, ballets, operas, etc.
Not Major Works – Set off with Quotation Marks	titles of individual newspaper or magazine articles, songs, short poems, and short stories

DIRECTIONS: Underline the title of the major works in each sentence.

1. We are reading The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy in my Language Arts class.
2. Over the summer, I read Watership Down.
3. Little Women by Louisa May Alcott has always been my favorite.
4. I just bought The Crossover by Kwame Alexander.
5. My best friend read Chains by Laurie Halse Anderson.
6. I am writing my paper on The True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle by Avi.

