Name _____

Alexander Graham Bell: The Man Who Connected the World

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Alexander Graham Bell worked on many inventions. If you could invent something new, what would it be and why?

2. Bell's work helped people communicate over long distances. How do you think communication has changed since his time?

3. Bell was inspired by his family's interest in speech and sound. What is something that inspires you?

4. If Alexander Graham Bell were alive today, what new invention do you think he would create?

© ReadingDuck.com