Name _____

Alexander Graham Bell: The Man Who Connected the World

Short Answer Key

1. His father and grandfather were experts in speech and worked with deaf people.
2. It made it easier for people to talk to each other over long distances.
3. The photophone and an early metal detector.
4. “Mr. Watson, come here, I want to see you!”
5. He invented the telephone, which changed the way people communicate.

© ReadingDuck.com