Name _____

George Washington Carver: A Scientist Who Changed Agriculture

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where was George Washington Carver born?
    a) Alabama
    b) Missouri
    c) Georgia
    d) New York

2. What is George Washington Carver most famous for?
    a) Inventing airplanes
    b) Discovering electricity
    c) Finding many uses for peanuts
    d) Writing books about farming

3. What challenge did Carver face when he was young?
    a) He was not allowed to go to school easily
    b) He had too many books
    c) He did not like science
    d) He was born in a wealthy family

4. Why did Carver encourage farmers to plant peanuts and sweet potatoes?
    a) To make more money
    b) To help the soil stay healthy
    c) To sell more peanut butter
    d) To stop farming cotton

5. What did Carver do instead of making money from his peanut discoveries?
    a) He became a doctor
    b) He kept the information secret
    c) He moved to a different country
    d) He continued teaching and helping farmers

© ReadingDuck.com