Name _____

Thomas Edison: The Man Who Lit Up the World

Short Answer Key

1. His curiosity made him ask questions, experiment, and learn new things. This helped him become a great inventor.
2. His lab in Menlo Park was one of the first invention factories, where teams worked together to create new things.
3. Finding the right material to make the light bulb last a long time. He tested thousands of materials before succeeding.
4. The phonograph (recorded sound) and the motion picture camera (helped create movies).
5. Hard work, never giving up, and being curious can lead to amazing discoveries.

© ReadingDuck.com