Name _____

Tim Berners-Lee: The Man Who Created the World Wide Web

Short Answer Key

1. They were mathematicians and computer scientists.
2. Because computers at different locations could not easily connect with each other.
3. The World Wide Web, including the first web browser and web page.
4. It made it possible to access information, communicate, and create websites.
5. Because his invention helped connect the world and changed how people use computers.

© ReadingDuck.com