

Name _____ Repetition

Repetition

Repetition means saying the same thing more than once. A word, a phrase, or even a vowel or consonant sound can be repeated on purpose by a writer in order to achieve a specific effect such as to add emphasis, to stress important thoughts or points, or to add feel to a work. Many literary devices are forms of repetition, and each distinct form has its own name.

DIRECTIONS: Match each sentence with what is repeated.
