The Tale of Zoe the Kite

Once upon a time, there was a little girl named Zoe. Zoe had a colorful kite. She loved to fly her kite high in the sky. The kite's name was Ray. Ray was blue and red with a long, yellow tail.

One sunny day, Zoe and Ray went to the park. Zoe ran with Ray and watched him dance in the wind. "Up, up, up!" said Zoe. Ray flew over trees and swings. "Whee!" shouted Zoe with joy.

Zoe saw a big, green hill. "Let's go there!" she said. Zoe ran to the hill, and Ray followed. At the top, the wind was strong. Ray flew higher and higher. Zoe felt like she was flying too.

A little bird named Jay saw Ray and flew near. "Hello, Ray!" said Jay. "You fly so well!"

"Thank you, Jay!" said Ray. "I love the sky!"

Zoe smiled. "I love the sky too!" she said. "Let's play all day!"

So, Zoe, Ray, and Jay played together. They laughed and had fun until the sun began to set. "Goodbye, sky," said Zoe. "See you tomorrow!"

And with that, Zoe and Ray went home, happy and tired from their fun day.
