The Big Picnic

One sunny day, Ella and her friend Sam went to the park for a big picnic. They packed a basket with yummy snacks.

There were muffins, apples, carrots, and cookies. Ella and Sam sat under a big, tall tree.

First, they ate the muffins. "These are so good!" said Sam with a big smile. Next, they crunched on the carrots. They were very crispy.

Then, a little red bird flew down and sat on a branch. Ella and Sam watched the bird sing a pretty song. The bird picked up a crumb and flew away.

After that, they saw a cute, fuzzy rabbit hopping near the tree. The rabbit was looking for food. Sam gave the rabbit a carrot. The rabbit was very happy and hopped away quickly.

Finally, Ella and Sam shared the cookies and talked about their fun day. They were so happy they had a picnic at the park.
