

Name _____

The Nonstop Adventures of the Nonchalant Knight

In a magical kingdom, there was a nonchalant knight named Nigel. Nigel was known for his nonstop bravery and his love for helping others. One day, Nigel received a note from the king about a nonpoisonous dragon causing a ruckus in the nearby village. The dragon was friendly but had a nonstop habit of sneezing fire, which was causing nonpermanent damage to houses.

Nigel, being nonjudgmental and kind, decided to help the dragon. He found the dragon in the village and noticed it had a nonthreatening look in its eyes. Nigel discovered that the dragon had a noninfectious cold, which was making it sneeze fire uncontrollably.

The knight went to the nontraditional healer in the village, who had a reputation for curing all kinds of ailments. The healer gave Nigel a special potion that would stop the dragon's sneezing. Nigel gave the potion to the dragon, and almost instantly, the sneezing stopped. The villagers were overjoyed and thanked Nigel for his nonstop efforts.

From that day on, Nigel and the dragon became noncompetitive friends. They went on many more adventures together, helping those in need and spreading joy throughout the kingdom. Nigel's nonstop bravery and nonchalant attitude made him a beloved hero in the land.

