Bright Night Adventure

One bright night, eight friends went on a high mountain hike. They brought enough food and water for the tough journey ahead. Though they felt a bit fraught with nerves, their laughter and light-heartedness made it fun.

Along the path, they saw a mighty waterfall through the thick trees. The weight of their bags was lightened by their joy and excitement. As the night grew darker, they set up camp and lit a bright fire.

They thought it was a perfect night for stories and marshmallows. Even though they were tired, their spirits were high and bright.
