Fun in Knoll

In a quiet knoll, gnomes planned a grand picnic. The

gnomes brought bologna

sandwiches and gnocchi. Each gnome wore a different color gown for the occasion.

They set up near a gnarly old tree with many hidden nooks. One gnome had a knack for juggling. Another played a harmonica with a beautiful tune. The smallest gnome found a golden knob in the grass. They decided to build a tiny monument in the knoll to celebrate their fun day.
