Painted Dragon

Once upon a time, in a small village, lived a boy named Tim who loved adventures. One sunny day, Tim discovered an old map hidden in his attic. The map showed a path to a magical forest where a dragon rested. Excited, Tim packed his bag and decided to follow the map.

As Tim walked through the village, he greeted his friends and explained his plan. Everyone cheered and wished him good luck. He entered the forest and noticed how the trees whispered secrets. Tim followed the path until he reached a river. The bridge over the river looked aged and wobbly, but Tim crossed it bravely.

On the other side, Tim spotted a sparkling cave. Inside the cave, he found an enchanted paintbrush. Tim remembered the stories his grandmother had told him about such brushes. He gently picked it up and painted a small dragon on the cave wall. To his amazement, the dragon came to life and started to dance.

The dragon led Tim to a hidden treasure chest buried under an old oak tree. With the dragon's help, Tim opened the chest and found it filled with gold coins and precious gems. Overjoyed, Tim thanked the dragon and painted a picture of the village to return home.

When Tim arrived back in the village, everyone was amazed at his adventure. He shared the treasure with his friends, and they celebrated together. Tim learned that with courage and kindness, wonderful things can happen.
