

Name _____

Adventures of Zoe and Joe

Once upon a time, in a magical land called Letterland, there lived two best friends named Zoe and Joe. Zoe was a cheerful zebra with stripes as bright as rainbows, and Joe was a jolly jellyfish who loved to bounce around in the ocean.

One sunny day, Zoe and Joe decided to go on an exciting adventure to find treasure hidden deep in the mysterious forest. As they journeyed through the tall trees and swaying bushes, they sang songs filled with words like "toe," "go," and "foe," giggling with delight at the funny sounds they made.

After hours of searching, Zoe and Joe stumbled upon a sparkling chest tucked beneath a towering oak tree. With eager anticipation, they opened it to find glittering jewels, shiny coins, and a note that read, "Congratulations, brave adventurers! You have discovered the treasure of the Vowel Team 'oe'."

Overwhelmed with joy, Zoe and Joe danced around the treasure, shouting words like "hoe," "roe," and "moe," celebrating their victory and the power of friendship in Letterland.