Joyful Toy Story

Once upon a time, in a magical land of toys, there lived a happy little toy named Roy. Roy was a joyful boy who loved to play with his favorite toys every day. He had a shiny red toy car, a bouncy rubber ball, and a noisy toy drum. One sunny morning, Roy decided to take his toys on an exciting adventure to the toy castle at the top of the hill.

As Roy and his toys journeyed up the hill, they met a friendly toy unicorn named Joy. Joy had a sparkly horn and a rainbow-colored mane. Together, Roy and Joy played games, sang songs, and shared stories.

They reached the toy castle just in time for a royal tea party with the king and queen toys. It was a day filled with laughter, friendship, and lots of joy!
