

ANSWERS

1. A group of sentences that expresses a unified and coherent idea.
2. The length can vary, the important thing is that there is unity and coherence among its sentences.
3. topic sentence, supporting details, evidence, concluding/transition sentence.
4. topic sentence
5. a word that links idea together and gives the reader a clue about the relationship between them. Use transition words to link paragraphs.