

The Main Character

The main character is the one the story is mostly about. Supporting characters interact with the main character during the story. Read the assigned story. Then answer the questions.

Who is the main character? _____

How do you know? _____

Who are the supporting characters? _____

Write down something the main character says or does that shows they are the main character.

Draw the main character.

