Aaron dreamed of a mountain camping trip. One day, he was able to go. it was a long drive. He followed the map until he reached the campsite. It was almost dark, so he put up his tent. Then he built a camp fire and sat out under the stars until he was sleepy. The next day, he went fishing and caught a huge fish. Later that afternoon, he swam in the same lake. He had such a great time on his trip, he decided to do the same thing again next year.
