

Types of Conjunctions

There are three types of conjunctions.

Coordinating conjunctions connect similar words together

Correlative conjunctions connect similar groups of words together, but always come in pairs

Subordinating conjunctions connect two ideas where one idea is more important than the other

INSTRUCTIONS: Underline the conjunctions in the sentences below. Then identify what kind of conjunction it is.

1. I will carry you if you are too tired to walk.

Coordinating, Correlative, Subordinating

2. Let's read while we are waiting for the bus.

Coordinating, Correlative, Subordinating

3. Kaylee is both my sister and my friend.

Coordinating, Correlative, Subordinating

4. Liam will score a goal, or Ed will.

Coordinating, Correlative, Subordinating

5. The pot won't boil unless you stop watching it.

Coordinating, Correlative, Subordinating

6. I was invited, yet I don't feel like going.

Coordinating, Correlative, Subordinating