

Infinitives | Infinitive Phrases

An infinitive is the word "to" plus a verb. Infinitives can be used as nouns, adjectives, or adverbs.

EXAMPLE: Is this cat going to repair the sink?

Underline the infinitive in each sentence.

1. I prefer to dine in.
2. The kids like to hang out upstairs.
3. I am going to forgive my mother.
4. My plan is to confuse my competitors.
5. The cat and the dog like to nap together.

Use an infinitive phrase to combine each pair of sentences.

6. Allen must love fruit. Allen buys so much fruit.

7. Diane is so kind. Diane shared her lunch with me.

8. Mindy is so lucky. Mindy won a scholarship.
