

Affect vs. Effect

Affect

- Almost always used as a verb
- Means "to influence" something

Effect

- Almost always used as a noun
- Means "impact" or "result"

DIRECTIONS: Complete each sentence with affect or effect.

1. Her tears had no _____ on the jury.
2. The _____ that medication was almost instantaneous.
3. I hope your homework doesn't _____ our evening plans.
4. My new haircut has had a great _____ on my self-esteem.
5. The _____ of a healthy diet can't be overestimated.
6. Don't let my cold _____ your plans to go out.
7. Meditation has a beneficial _____ on your mood.
8. Few know that sugar has a cancer-promoting _____.
9. His decisions _____ my life as well as his own.
10. The _____ of her efforts were impressive.

