

Open Syllables

A syllable can be "open" or "closed."

- An open syllable ends with a vowel that makes a long sound, example: see
- A closed syllable ends with a consonant, and the vowel makes a short sound, example: sit

DIRECTIONS: Color the squares of the open syllable words.

ply	so	tick	pet
mat	by	try	hat
me	gee	bet	got
high	set	go	low
ran	camp	see	maid
we	frank	glue	cop