The Lost Tent

Mack and Jill went on a camp trip. They had a big tent. The tent was pink and had a strong black strap. Mack and Jill set up the tent near a pond. They had a lot of fun at the camp.

One night, a strong wind came. The wind was so strong that it blew the tent away. Mack and Jill were sad. They went to look for the tent. They went to the hill but did not find it. They went to the rock but did not find it.

Then, they saw a duck by the pond. The duck quacked and pointed to a clump of trees. Mack and Jill ran to the clump of trees. They saw their pink tent stuck in the branches.

Mack and Jill were so glad. They pulled the tent down and set it up again. They thanked the duck and gave it a snack. The duck was happy, and so were Mack and Jill. They had a great time at the camp.
