

Name _____

The Trip to the Beach

One sunny day, three friends named Beth, Chuck, and Chad decided to go to the beach. They packed a big lunch, sunscreen, and their favorite beach toys. They were so excited for their trip!

When they arrived, they spread their blanket on the sand and set up an umbrella for shade. Chuck spotted a starfish near the shore. "Look at this!" he shouted. Beth and Chad ran over to see.

Beth found a shell that was shiny and bright. She put it in her bag to take home. Chad built a tall sandcastle with a deep moat around it. He used his bucket to pour water into the moat. The sandcastle looked amazing!

After playing for a while, the friends decided to eat their lunch. They had sandwiches, chips, and fresh fruit. They drank cold lemonade from their cups. It was a perfect picnic.

Then, they played in the waves. They jumped over them and splashed each other. They laughed and had so much fun. Chuck even found a piece of seaweed and pretended it was a beard. "I am the seaweed king!" he said, making everyone giggle.

As the sun started to set, the three friends packed up their things. They watched the sky turn orange and pink. It was a beautiful end to their beach trip.

"That was the best day ever!" said Beth. Chuck and Chad agreed. They couldn't wait for their next adventure together.

