The Bridge to Hedge Village

In a lush, green forest, there was a friendly hedgehog named Ridge. Ridge loved to play and explore all day. One afternoon, while playing near the edge of the forest, he found an old, wooden bridge covered in moss.

Curious, Ridge decided to cross the bridge. As he walked, he noticed a small badge lying on one of the wooden planks. He picked it up and saw that it had a picture of a hedgehog on it, just like him!

Suddenly, the bridge began to glow, and a path of golden lights appeared. Ridge followed the lights and soon found himself in a magical village filled with hedgehogs of all sizes. The village was called Hedge Village, and it was the most wonderful place Ridge had ever seen.

In Hedge Village, Ridge met a wise old hedgehog named Judge. Judge told Ridge that finding the badge meant he was now part of their special community. Ridge was overjoyed and couldn't wait to make new friends.

Ridge spent his days learning about the village's secrets, helping his new friends, and playing fun games. He even discovered a hidden ledge where he could see the entire village below.

Ridge was happy and knew he had found a special place where he belonged. Every night, he crossed the glowing bridge back to his home, excited for the adventures that awaited him in Hedge Village.
