

Name _____

The Great Bee Adventure

Once upon a time, in a sunny green field, there lived three little bees named Lee, Zee, and Dee. They were the best of friends and loved to play together. One day, Lee had a great idea. "Let's go on an adventure and find the sweetest treat!" she buzzed with glee.

Zee and Dee agreed with a loud, "Yippee!"

The three bees flew over the green trees and saw a big blue stream. "We need to find the flowers with the sweet nectar," said Dee.

They found a beautiful garden filled with pink and yellow flowers. Lee took the lead, and they all landed on a big, bright flower. The bees were so happy to see such lovely flowers. "Look at all these sweet treats!" said Zee.

As they sipped the nectar, a gentle breeze blew through the garden, making the flowers sway. The bees giggled and enjoyed their sweet feast. When their tummies were full, they decided it was time to go back home.

On their way back, they flew past a green tree where they saw their friend, a little green frog named Greenie. "Hello, Greenie!" they buzzed. "We had a great adventure and found the sweetest treat!"

Greenie smiled and said, "I'm so happy for you, little bees. You are so sweet!"

The three bees, Lee, Zee, and Dee, waved goodbye to Greenie and flew back to their cozy hive. They couldn't wait to tell their bee family about their fun adventure and the sweet treats they found.