The Great Roaring Safari

In the heart of the wild savanna, there lived a friendly lion named Roary. Roary was known far and wide for his magnificent mane and his adventurous spirit.

One sunny morning, Roary decided to embark on a grand safari adventure with his best friend, Ollie the elephant. Together, they roamed across the vast plains, encountering all sorts of fascinating creatures along the way.

They saw graceful giraffes stretching their necks to reach the leaves, playful monkeys swinging from tree to tree, and majestic zebras trotting gracefully through the grasslands.

As they journeyed deeper into the savanna, they heard the distant roar of a lion. With excitement in their hearts, Roary and Ollie followed the sound, eager to meet the king of the jungle.
