Star Struck

Liam loved looking at the stars. One night, while using his new telescope, he spotted something unusual. "A flying star?" Liam wondered. But as it got closer, he realized it was a tiny spaceship! The spaceship landed in his backyard, and out popped a little green alien. "Hi! I'm Zog!" said the alien. Zog needed help fixing his ship. Liam brought his toolbox and worked with Zog to fix the wobbly engine. "All done!" Liam said. Zog smiled and handed Liam a glowing star rock. "Thank you, Earth friend!" he said, blasting off into the sky. "Wow," Liam whispered, holding the star rock tightly.
