

ANSWERS

1. I always work sitting at my desk in my kitchen.

2. The dog is at the groomer I miss him.

3. I saw my mother earlier, she looked good.

4. I am looking forward to starting to read that book.

5. I am thinking I will start reading it tomorrow I may start today.

6. It is easy to avoid writing a run-on sentence.

7. Do you know the three way to correct a run on sentence I do.

8. Later today I will work in the garden has a lot to do.

9. The beans are starting to grow; the purple ones are the biggest.

10. Just because a sentence is long doesn't mean it's a run-on.