

ANSWERS

1. Pathetic fallacy is a figure of speech in which human emotions are attributed to inanimate things in nature.
2. Personification is a figure of speech in which human emotions are attributed to an object.
3. Anthropomorphism is when non-human things display literal human traits and are believed to be capable of human behavior.