

Name _____

Justice on Trial

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What did the González family face in their neighborhood that led them to seek legal help?
  - a) Discrimination in schools
  - b) Pollution from a nearby factory
  - c) Property taxes
  - d) Lack of access to healthcare

2. Why did Rosa Gomez agree to take on the González family's case?
  - a) She wanted to make money.
  - b) She believed in justice and equality.
  - c) She wanted to become famous.
  - d) She was pressured by the corporation.

3. What were the main issues at the center of the trial?
  - a) Property disputes
  - b) Discrimination and environmental pollution
  - c) Criminal charges against the González family
  - d) Traffic violations

4. What was the verdict of the trial?
  - a) The corporation was found not guilty.
  - b) Rosa Gomez was found guilty.
  - c) The corporation was found guilty of civil rights violations.
  - d) The González family was ordered to leave their neighborhood.

5. How did Rosa Gomez's dedication to justice impact her community?
  - a) It led to increased discrimination.
  - b) It inspired other communities to stand up for their rights.
  - c) It had no impact on her community.
  - d) It caused divisions among the residents.

