

Name _____

The Enchanted Mango Tree of Diwali Delights

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was unique about the mango tree in the story?
 - a) It was the tallest tree in the village.
 - b) It bore Diwali-themed fruits with surprising properties.
 - c) It only grew mangoes during Diwali.
 - d) It was planted by a famous gardener.

2. Why did the villagers gather under the mango tree as Diwali approached?
 - a) To play games
 - b) To pluck the enchanted mangoes and share them with loved ones
 - c) To admire its golden leaves
 - d) To offer prayers to the tree

3. What were some of the unique properties of the enchanted mangoes?
 - a) They could glow in the dark.
 - b) They had the power to make wishes come true.
 - c) They had Diwali symbols and brought joy and blessings when consumed.
 - d) They tasted like chocolate.

4. How did Bansi the monkey discover the magical properties of the mangoes?
 - a) He read about it in a book.
 - b) He overheard the villagers talking about it.
 - c) He climbed the tree and took a bite.
 - d) He found a mango with a rangoli symbol.

5. What did the villagers and the monkeys learn from their shared experience with the enchanted mangoes?
 - a) They learned how to plant mango trees.
 - b) They learned how to make mango dishes.
 - c) They learned the importance of unity and the joy of celebrating together.
 - d) They learned how to climb trees.

