

Name _____

Backyard Tales: Adventures by the Campfire

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Reflect on the significance of storytelling in Mark and Emma's backyard adventure. How did the act of sharing stories contribute to their experience?
2. Share a memorable moment from Mark and Emma's evening by the campfire that you found particularly enjoyable or imaginative.
3. Discuss the idea that adventures can happen close to home. What does this story teach us about finding magic and excitement in familiar places?
4. If you were to have a campfire adventure in your own backyard, what kind of stories and adventures would you create, and why?

