

Name _____

The Wishing Groundhog

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Gracie's gift allowed her to grant wishes, but she had to use it responsibly. Why is it important for individuals with special abilities or powers to use them wisely and thoughtfully?
2. Oliver's wish for all animals to live in harmony and peace had a profound effect on the forest. How can unity and harmony benefit not only the animal community but also human communities and societies?
3. Felix initially wished for endless riches and power, but he later changed his wish. What do you think motivated Felix to change his wish, and what does this change in his wish reveal about his character?
4. Gracie refused to grant Felix's initial wish because she believed it was selfish and harmful. How can individuals distinguish between selfish and selfless wishes or actions, and why is it important to prioritize selflessness?

