

Name _____

The Hanukkah Art Heist

Short Answer Key

1. The Art Detectives were inspired to investigate when they overheard a conversation about a plan to steal the painting during the Hanukkah celebration.
2. The Art Detectives discovered a secret code hidden within the painting, leading to the location of the Menorah of Miracles. The significance to the thieves was that they were after both the painting and the legendary menorah.
3. The Art Detectives prevented the theft by triggering an alarm when the thieves attempted to steal "Festival of Lights," which alerted the authorities. They then confronted the culprits.
4. The museum displayed the Menorah of Miracles alongside "Festival of Lights" during the Hanukkah celebration to show their gratitude to the Art Detectives.
5. The Art Detectives brought the community together in the spirit of Hanukkah by uniting them to protect and celebrate their cultural heritage, ultimately leading to the public display of both the "Festival of Lights" painting and the Menorah of Miracles.
