

Name _____ Personification

Personification

Personification is a kind of figurative language that attributes human thoughts, actions, characteristics, or emotions to something that is not human.

DIRECTIONS: Think of an object you would like to describe using personification. Write a few sentences about what the object is doing and why. Draw the object.
