Adverbs

Adverbs tell you more about a verb. Adverbs answer the questions: How? How much? Where? When?

DIRECTIONS: Underline the adverb in each sentence. Then think of two adverbs that could replace it. Write your adverbs on the lines.

1. John paced nervously.

2. Frank ate slowly.

3. The waitress arrived soon.

4. I live below.

5. We always eat apples.

6. We finally got home.
