

Complex Sentences

DIRECTIONS: Rewrite each pair of sentences as a single sentence with an introductory phrase. Use correct punctuation.

1. Jane studies a lot. She studies so she will get good grades.
2. The dog has a lot of toys. We like to keep him occupied.
3. Meg lost the game. She was very gracious about losing.
4. I want to learn new things. I do a lot of research.
5. I just got a cat. The cat is to keep my dog company.
6. Kelly likes fancy cakes. I made her a fancy cake with three tiers.
7. Billy loves dinosaurs. That's why I got him a plush dinosaur.
8. It's a beautiful spring day. I will spend some time outside.
9. I'm expecting a call. I'm keeping my phone close.

