

Name _____

The Garden of Unity

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why do you think Sarah's idea to build a community garden was a good way to bring people from different backgrounds together?
2. How did each volunteer contribute their unique skills and knowledge to the community garden project?
3. Can you think of other ways communities can come together and celebrate their diversity, similar to the garden in the story?
4. What are some real-life examples of communities or projects that promote unity and celebrate diversity like the community garden in the story?

