

Name _____

The Lonely Monster

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How does the creature's story show that the way someone is treated can shape who they become?
2. What could the family in the cottage have done differently?
3. Do you think Victor Frankenstein was responsible for the creature's suffering? Why or why not?
4. How does this story relate to how people treat others who are different from them?

