

Name _____ Beginning or Ending of a Story

Beginning or Ending?

DIRECTIONS: Decide if you would be more likely to find each sentence at the beginning or the ending of a story. Circle the correct answer. Then explain your answer.

1. Our drama teacher, Mrs. Miller, cast the shortest, shyest, and quietest boy in the class to be the villain in our play.

This sentence would come at the beginning ending

How do you know? _____

2. From that day forward, I was totally a cat person.

This sentence would come at the beginning ending

How do you know? _____

3. It just goes to show you that every once in a while, a kid knows more than his parents.

This sentence would come at the beginning ending

How do you know? _____
