

ANSWERS

1. Brackets are a pair of written marks placed around extra information in a sentence.
2. Not exactly; though both add extra information to a sentence.
3. It is extra information that is not essential to the overall meaning of the sentence.
4. will vary