

Name _____

Guardian of Irish Folklore

Short Answer Key

1. Fionn is a Celtic dragon known for his emerald-green scales and wise demeanor. He is beloved because he represents Ireland's ancient power.
2. Pádraig is a talking fox with a talent for storytelling. He shares his tales of leprechauns, fairies, and hidden treasures with the visitors.
3. Aisling used her knowledge of Irish folklore to outsmart the treasure hunters, leading them on a wild chase through the enchanted forests with the help of Pádraig and Fionn.
4. Aisling considered the wonder and enchantment of Irish folklore to be the real treasure of the zoo.

