

Name _____

Guardian of Irish Folklore

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Aisling likely felt a deep connection to Irish folklore and believed in the importance of preserving her country's cultural heritage. She also cared for the well-being of the magical creatures and wanted to ensure they remained safe.
2. The presence of magical creatures likely inspired wonder and curiosity among the visitors. It may have also encouraged them to learn more about Irish folklore and appreciate the rich cultural heritage of Ireland.
3. Aisling's bravery and determination were crucial in protecting the magical creatures from treasure hunters and ensuring their safety. Her actions helped preserve Irish folklore and the creatures' freedom.
4. The magical creatures likely felt safe and valued in the zoo under Aisling's care. They may have appreciated her dedication and the opportunity to share their stories and talents with visitors.

