

Drawing Conclusions

DIRECTIONS: Your teacher is going to show you a series of items. Together, the items represent a person, place or thing. Write down each object your teacher shows you. Think about what each object means and what you can infer from them. When you have seen all of the objects, think about what you already know about these objects. Then draw a conclusion about what person, place, or thing the objects collectively represent. Explain your answer.

--

--

--

--

My conclusion is that the objects represent _____ because _____
