

Name _____ Semicolons

Semicolons

DIRECTIONS: Use a semicolon to separate two independent clauses that are joined by a conjunctive adverb. Add the conjunctive adverb provided, a semi-colon, and a second independent clause to create a longer sentence.

Diane is a talented stylist. (incidentally)

John works very hard. (thus)

James is a great student. (likewise)

I eat a lot of vegetables. (equally)

I didn't like the first movies in the series. (therefore)

I don't feel like eating fish. (rather)

I'm angry that you were late. (furthermore)