

Run-on Sentences

DIRECTIONS: Read each sentence. If it is correct as written, write correct on the line. If it is a run-on sentence, write run-on on the line.

1. George is in the kitchen whining is hungry. _____
2. I told George to get a piece of fruit he didn't. _____
3. George yelled to Mom I wasn't helping him I was though. _____
4. I started a load of laundry when I got home. _____
5. Nobody in this house but me does laundry I think that stinks. _____
6. When the clothes are dry I will give George his he can put them away himself. _____
7. I am sick of always having to do things for George doesn't appreciate me. _____
8. I am planning to have a steak for dinner. _____
9. Later, I will take a walk with the dog. _____
10. I will not share my steak with George cannot come on our walk either. _____